Under the Erasmus+ funding scheme "Capacity Building in higher education" the partners of the SEA-ABT project will increase the capacities of Thai Universities for delivering modern high quality curricula in the area of beverage technology. These will be based on new demand driven educational products, using innovative pedagogical approaches and teaching tools for different profiles.

Within the 3 year project, the consortium will establish an independent joint Academy, with hubs in Thailand and EU, to enable sustainable collaboration in higher education (HE) and continuing professional development (CPD). The academy will manage training and continuous exchange of best practise between Thai partners and with European partners.

The Erasmus+ Capacity Building project SEA-ABT will establish an independent "Academy for Beverage Technology" as an organisational frame for a structured and sustainable collaboration between universities and the beverage industry.

Partners from Companies as well as the Educational Sector are invited to join the network, support the activities and directly benefit from the developments.

Membership is FREE of charge!

New members of the SEA-ABT Academy will NOT receive any EU-funding from the project. Due to the Erasmus+ funding rules, costs of additional partners cannot be covered.

What SEA-ABT Academy Membership can offer you:

- Access to our project intranet and thus to most recent deliverables
- Access to database on collected needs for education from the food industry
- Contribute to shaping the developed trainings with us according to your needs
- Attend project meetings (virtual and physical)

Currently Thailand lacks in capacities to supply the beverage industry with adequately trained students and qualified non-academic staff. Currently the Thai beverage industry trains their employees in house or in a limited number by Universities or overseas. A proper structured and sustainable collaborative concept for high quality continuing professional development (CPD) training for beverage technology is not established.

To overcome these gaps a consortium of Thai and European universities and companies of the beverage industry, will establish an independent joint Academy, with hubs in Thailand and EU, to enable a new sustainable collaboration between the partners for:

- continuing needs analysis
- developing and organizing new demand driven educational products for CPD and Higher Education
- using innovative pedagogical approaches and teaching tools

Special emphasis will be given also to hygiene and environmental aspects and skills like teamwork, critical thinking, entrepreneurial mindset, etc.

The developed educational products will be qualified according international standards and implemented in a postgraduate master, in existing curricula to have an optional focus in beverage technology with the option for double/joint degrees with EU universities.
